2.1 General information What is the 'admin' email address for?

A Joker.com reseller usually has two registered email-addresses with Joker.com, one for the 'robot' emails, and another for administrative tasks.

Reseller news and monthly invoices will be sent to the administrative address.

The 'robot' address corresponds to the standard address associated to the Joker.com login.

All notifications resulting from domain orders, renewals and modifications will be sent to this address.

This address for notifications can be changed easily in 'My Profile'.
