1.2 Login Account How can I use the Joker.com system?

The Joker.com Registrar System

You have to register yourself at Joker.com to be able to use the system and order or renew domain names.
Registration is an easy step - we only need a login name and a valid email address from you. A password will be sent to this email address.
If you have forgotten your password, please use the link "send password" in the login/register menu. A new password will be sent by email.
Please also consider the activation of our Two-factor-authentication , which provides a high level of security for your account.
